VOL. XX.—NO. 6085

PORTLAND, OREGON: MONDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1880.

PRICE—TEN CENTS.

GENERAL NEWS.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Business Booming in Wall Street.

New York, Oct. 16.—Everything booming again on (the) street. Stocks, bonds and governments all advanced sharply with enormous transactions. In (some) cases prices are higher than for years.

Failure.

(Pat)erson, N. J., Oct. 16.—Wright & Smith, heavy (silk) manufacturers, surprised their creditors by (failing). Liabilities, $250,000, mostly secured.

Heavy Liabilities.

(Boston), Oct. 17.—The liabilities of the collapsed (Deposit) bank are from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

Making Connections of A. T. & S. F. Road with Pacific Railroads.

(Little) Rock, Oct. 16.—W. B. Strong, general manager of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, (is) in Boston and New York consulting with (representa)tives of the Southern and Union Pacific (roads) concerning the prospect of arriving at an (agreement). The occasion for this grows out of the (approac)hing completion of the Atchison, Topeka and (Santa Fe) road to Florida pass, where it will intersect (the Southern) Pacific. The distance now intervening (between) the two roads, and which is being daily lessened by rapid construction, is about 120 miles. As (soon as) the two lines shall be brought into union, (an agree)ment for an interchange of tariff will be (put) in effect. The details of this arrangement (are now) occupying the attention of the officers of (several) roads assembled in Boston. The conference will probably have been ratified several days (since) by the representatives of the Union Pacific (road in) punctual in putting in an appearance. The (Union) Pacific is entitled to a representation in the (conference) for the reason that the man who control(s the Cen)tral and Southern Pacific lines are also large (holders) in the Union Pacific. It is expected that the (new road) will soon get a large amount of freight (which) now goes over northern roads.

Railroad War.

(St. Louis), Feb. (?), and the Chicago and Alton railroad (war) continues to grow bitterer. The rates to-day (betwee)n St. Louis and fifty cents back. Travel has (increased) threefold. Speculation in tickets has (begun), as the roads are determined to beat specu(lators). So far the Alton road has the best of the (fight) [illegible].

Personal.

(Chic)ago, Oct. 16.—Moody and Sankey left to-night (for) San Francisco.

(Ch)eyenne, Oct. 16.—Grant arrived here at noon, (and was) received by a parade of the Boys in Blue.

To be Arrested.

[illegible], Oct. 16.—A warrant has been issued to-day (for the ar)rest of Mrs. Howe, president of the swin(dling) bank.

Spreading West.

[illegible], Oct. 17.—The epizootic is here.

Drouth in Virginia.

[illegible], Oct. 16.—A water famine threatens [illegible], compelling them to stop on account [illegible].

Polygamy Question in the Episcopal Convention.

(New York), Oct. 16.—The house of deputies of the (general) convention received a resolution from the (clergy) of the state of the church, and placed it (on the c)alendar, which recites that the cause of [illegible] in Utah by polygamy recognized [illegible] institution; that polygamy is contrary (to the law) of God and to the law of the United States, (and it is) the duty of every christian and citi(zen of the) republic to use his influence with the (governm)ent to make it as speedily as possible (an offense) of the law, despite the many pecu(liarities) in the way thereof.

Adjourned.

(The Episcopal) convention adjourned.

Trouble With Utes Imminent.

[illegible], Oct. 16.—A conflict with the Utes (seems im)minent. Yesterday morning two companies (left) [illegible] City for the reservation to (arrest) Berry and others on writs issued by the (sheriff) of Gunnison county under orders (from the) governor, and have probably reached the (agency) by this time. Governor Pitkin was (not) apprised of this movement of the mili(tary), and (was) informed him. He expressed (fear that) they will not be able to cope with the (Indians) (and) thought they should have taken (more tr)oops. The United (States) [illegible] this morning left for Gun(nison) [illegible]. It is probable that he will issue (a warrant for) the arrest of the agent and associates and (turn them) over to the United States com(missioner). Agent Berry makes the statement that (the) [illegible] delivered to the Indians the (body of) [illegible] and all freighters on (the) reservation would have been (killed). [illegible] military go on the reserva(tion) [illegible] is every danger of a (war).

Governor Pitkin Thinks the Government Will Allow County Courts to Try the Murderers.

(Denver), Oct. 16.—Governor Pitkin, referring to (the killing of) the Indian by Jackson called for (action on) the part of the officers of [illegible] the persons who murdered [illegible] speedily arrested and held for (trial). [illegible] to take Jackson to Gunnison [illegible] before a magistrate, it is equally [illegible] in the same place and before the same (court the) Indians who murdered Jackson and [illegible]. The people of the state demand (that the murderers) be brought to justice, (and will hold) the government officers, private citi(zens) [illegible] if the general government will not (consent) to punish the guilty parties, then the (people of) Gunnison county should proceed to (take the) matter and issue warrants for the (arrest) [illegible]. It will be my duty to furnish all the as(sistance) may be necessary to enforce the process (of law). I trust that the general government (will) use the power of the federal army to protect (these men) [illegible] with murder from examination and (trial). [illegible] of the county where the (crime was) committed, I think it would (be well for) the government to remove (the) Utes from places where (they) [illegible] camped, to some point further [illegible] houses, but simply live in (tents) [illegible] in the habit of putting up [illegible] them. These Utes are on (the) only road by which freighters can (go) for the winter to the mining camps [illegible] excluded by snow from outside (during) the winter. Unless the Utes (are removed) freighters will not undertake the trip, (and) people will be subjected to famine. If the sheriff of Gunnison county is to see (that) [illegible] is arrested, was protected from violence. [illegible] no danger to Berry, as Colorado [illegible] is desiring only a fair court [illegible] many persons around the Ute (agency) are endeavoring to bring about a dis(pute) with the Indians to prevent the consumma(tion of) the treaty. The commissioners them(selves) [illegible] no such person. The people [illegible] but will not defeat it by any dis(turbance).

Mormon Elders Seeking Converts.

[illegible], Oct. 17.—Seventeen Mormon elders ar(rived here) from Utah to go through the south(ern states) seeking converts, and to secure immigra(nts).

Meeting of the Surveyors General Convention.

[illegible], Oct. 16.—Surveyors general convention (met and) the members have gone (home). The committee charged with the [illegible] and questions did so [illegible] proposed act of congress drawn up [illegible] designed to be sub(mitted to congress), entitled "an act to provide for (the survey and) disposal of the public lands of U. (S." It) [illegible] a standing bond of (the deputies) for faithful performance of du(ty) [illegible] shall have only a sup(ervisory) [illegible] general instructions, and all mat(ters of) [illegible] administration are to be left [illegible]. Copies of maps of survey on [illegible] office shall be made by the [illegible] under direction of the commis(sioner) [illegible] land office shall furnish such [illegible] at the cost of paper and print(ing) [illegible] added. Deputy surveyors [illegible] to administer necessary oaths (in) relation to mining laws, the pres(ent) [illegible] sufficient if faithfully car(ried out) [illegible] general are allowed to collect a [illegible] from each applicant for a mining [illegible] unanimously adopted that the pas(toral) [illegible] lands should be leased in large [illegible] purposes, with privileges of pur(chase) [illegible] of lease. A clause in the [illegible] and mineral land entries [illegible] within the limits of the land em(braced) [illegible].

SEVERE WEATHER.

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES) TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Snow in Iowa.

(Sioux) City, Oct. 17.—An inch of snow fell here, (the) earliest ever known. The weather is (cold). The storm is general over the northwest. (Wires) are down in every direction.

Storm in Arkansas.

(Little) Rock, Oct. 17.—A severe wind and rain (storm) here to-day. It broke many windows, (a) circus tent, blew over a lion cage and (the lions) escaped, flying through the (town). A panic ensued, but finally quiet (was restored) and the lions recaptured.

Snow Storm in Nebraska—Trains Blocked.

(Omaha), Oct. 16.—Elkhorn valley, Nebraska, (was visited by) a fearful snow storm yesterday after(noon). On the Black Hills branch (of the Union) Pacific snow drifted to the depth of [illegible] feet, stopping trains. The extent of (the damage is not) known. It came down from the (west). There were also very heavy drifts on (the) Republican Valley railroad, between [illegible]. The train due here on the (Omaha and) Northern Nebraska road at 11 A. M., ran (into a drift) and was delayed five hours. Whether (the) [illegible] of the cattle ranges has not (been ascertained). Weather has cleared up to-night and (trains are) running regularly on the Union Pacific.

THE TURF.

The Fast Horse's Time.

(New York), October 16.—At Prospect Park yester(day) [illegible] started on his trial to beat his own (record) [illegible]. He trotted the first quarter in [illegible], half-mile in 1:12¾; three-quarters, in [illegible], mile in 2:23.

St. Julien Against Himself.

(New York), October 16.—There is an immense (crowd at) Prospect Park to witness St. Julien's effort (to trot for) $2500 against his own time.

St. Julien Lower the Record.

(New York), Oct. 16.—St. Julien to-day trotted a (quarter in) 34 seconds, one-half in 1:01¾; three-quar(ters in) 1:36½, and mile in 2:12¾, not lowering the [illegible].

DRAMATIC AND MUSICAL.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.)

New York, Oct. 17.—The musical festival now preparing for next May in the seventh regiment armory promises to be the grandest affair of the kind ever held in America. The estimated expense is $200,000, one-half of which is already subscribed. A chorus has been organized of 1200 voices and are now practicing weekly in sections in different halls, here and in Brooklyn, Jersey City and Newark.

The De Mont-de Lillian opera concert company, a new organization, is preparing to give concerts throughout the country, under the management of Hugh Angier, a gentleman who has just returned from Europe with Signora De Montelle, a soprano possessing a voice of remarkable sweetness and power. Four other artists, members of the organization, arrived here on the steamer Wednesday.

Theodore Thomas, with his old orchestra, has commenced a series of concerts in Metropolitan hall, drawing large and fashionable audiences.

Ireshek, the German rival of Bernhardt, is expected here in three weeks.

Lillian Spencer, the new debutante, engaged by Max Strakosch, opens at Fifth avenue in "Norah's Vow," at the close of Fanny Davenport's engagement. The American Girl still packs the house.

The advance sale of seats for the grand Italian opera at the Academy is very large—nearly all the choice places having been sold. "Lucia" will be produced Monday, when Gerster will make her first appearance for two years.

Clara Morris in "Article 47" succeeds "Baffled Beauty" at Park.

"As you Like It" at Wallack's still draws brilliant audiences.

"Deacon Crankett," which has proved a great success, gives place to "Daniel Rochat" to-night.

W. E. Sheridan in The Duke's Motto is drawing good houses at Niblo's. "My Partner" follows it Monday. It is stated that Boucicault's only daughter Nina is preparing for the stage, also Sothern's only daughter Eve.

"Cinderella" at Booth's is lavishly mounted and running well.

A dramatic paper gives the following California notes:

Dr. Callahan, author of "Deception," writes from San Francisco that he never claimed the play as an original one, and never pretended for a moment that I was an adaptation. These pretensions were never made, he says, outside of the columns of a paper published here.

Judging from the large influx of California artists, W. E. Sheridan will find his support at Baldwin's pretty queer, for if O'Neill chooses to enforce his contract he need not support him.

Geo. C. Chipman, formerly treasurer of Baldwin's, has been appointed Maguire's New York agent.

A new play called "One Hundred Wives" will be produced in Philadelphia this Monday and here in a short time.

Negotiations are pending for the production of "Deception" at Haverly's Fifth avenue.

FIRES.

Big Fire near the Old Oregon Steamship Dock.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—About three o'clock a fire broke out in the hay and grain warehouse of Henry Dutton, Jr., east side Stewart street between Mission and Howard. It was caused by a pipe of a careless Pay Yankee. In a few moments the flames spread to the old and combustible building in the vicinity, and several alarms brought the entire department to the scene, and the fire was confined to the block in which it started. Dutton's loss is about $10,000; insured, $5000. D. A. Danielson, a shoemaker adjoining the building, lost about $300. The next building was a two-story frame, owned by A. L. Dufrey, whose loss is about $6000. It was occupied on lower floor by John Meyer, coffee saloon, loss $3500; insured $1250 and by Mrs. Craig, liquor saloon, loss $250. The upper story was occupied by Charles West as a sailor boarding house; loss $3,000. Two story frame Nos. [illegible] Mission street was owned by J. C. Rolls and occupied by a grocery, saloon, coffee stand and boat builder; damaged in upper story to the amount of $1,000; insured. The lumber yard of J. Kennedy, lying between Stewart street, the wharves sustained a loss of about $5000. G. M. [illegible], junk store, 18 Stewart street, was also destroyed; loss $1500. The engines were still at work on the smouldering hay when another fire broke out only a block distant on the wharf between Howard and Folsom street in the buildings formerly occupied by the Pacific Mail Company and later by the Oregon Steamship Company, and which were the property of the state and used for landing and storage of hay and grain. The flames spread so rapidly that before the engines could reach the scene the wharf and buildings were ablaze for the space of 300 or 400 feet, extending to the further line of Folsom street wharf. A small steamer loaded with nitroglycerine was lying in the slip at the south side of the wharf, but was towed to a place of safety. The schooner Annie Herminia, owned by Patrick Dunham, loaded with wheat from Napa and lying at the end of Folsom street wharf, burned to the water's edge; loss on vessel and cargo, about $5000. All buildings and contents were swept clean. The hay and grain and warehouse were owned by a number of parties, including Riley & Yeat, Dutton and McCord and others. It is impossible to estimate the aggregate losses, but they will be considerable. The buildings were of a cheap character and of comparatively little value. The wharf is considerably damaged.

$80,000 Fire.

Dover, N. Y., Oct. 16.—A block of buildings burned to-day. Loss $80,000.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC.

Views of Sir Alexander T. Galt on the Question of Climate—Alleged Snow Blockades, etc.

(SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.)

New York, Oct. 16.—The Tribune reports Sir Alexander T. Galt, Canadian minister to London, as saying yesterday regarding the Canada Pacific railroad: "When the road is finished, the province of British Columbia will become a part of Canada, but this talk of our losing British Columbia and other provinces besides in case it is not finished is absurd. Two hundred and sixty-five miles of road have been completed, and it is expected that trains will be running over 700 miles at the end of the year. Work will be pushed vigorously throughout the winter, and this brings up the question of climate. They say the road will be blocked by snow and the country rendered uninhabitable for four months in the year. Now the valleys of Saskatchewan and Athabasca are of wonderful fertility. The road runs on a comparatively low level. It has been surveyed throughout, and from all we can learn, the climate will be no serious obstacle. The rainfall seems good, and the climate certainly is as good, if not better, than that along the line of the Northern Pacific. In fact, instead of being blocked by snow, the road will suffer less than the Northern or even Union Pacific, because the Canadian crosses the Rocky mountains at a very low pass, (the Tete Jaune pass) which is only 3,600 feet in height. We don't expect any serious inconvenience from snow or cold. The eastern terminus of the road is Lake Nipissing, just northwest of Ottawa, where it connects with other Canadian railroads and the western terminus will be Burrard's Inlet at the mouth of Fraser river. For 500 or 600 miles in the western part of the road it will run through a comparatively unsettled, rather mountainous, and in places, barren country. It has been suggested that it would be more profitable for the road to stop on the eastern side of the Rocky mountains. In that case it would be only a local and not a through line. It is our hope and expectation of securing through business and outbidding more southerly seaports on the western coast that the line has been built. We expect to gain for it a large part of the great carrying trade across the Pacific, for reason that our western terminus will be 1,000 miles further north than San Francisco."

Coming Meeting of the Canadian Pacific Syndicate.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Members of the banking firm of Martin Ross, London, and an attache of the Paris bank interested in the Canadian Pacific railway syndicate are expected here to-morrow. Nearly all the Canadian members of the syndicate are here, and Hon. J. C. Abbott, of Montreal, as their counsel. No details of the contract have been obtained.

THE FEMALE ADVENTURER AGAIN.

A Controversy Between "a Woman" and a Wife over a Husband's Estate.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Times prints the following: "A number of years ago a young woman named Emma M. Purvis arrived in San Francisco from her birthplace in Caledonia, in this State. In San Francisco she became acquainted with a man named Desanta Marina, to whom she was married without the performance of any special ceremony. She and Desanta Marina disagreed in 1877 and separated. Mrs. Desanta Marina came East by rail. She says she formed the acquaintance of an elderly man named Isaac T. Gardiner. The acquaintance thus formed continued until Gardiner's death, January 29th, in the Hoffman House. Gardiner left a will, by which he bequeathed his property to his wife. This will is now the object of contest in the Surrogate court. Pending determination of the controversy, Mrs. Rosetta B. Gardiner has been appointed special administratrix of her deceased husband's estate. At the time of Gardiner's death there was in the vault of the Central Safe Deposit company, a box which had been hired for the joint use of Gardiner and Emma M. Desanta Marina. The contents of this box were asserted by Mrs. Gardiner to have belonged to her husband and she claimed them as special administratrix. Mrs. Desanta Marina opposed this claim, and asserted that the contents of the box belonged to her. The property consisted of two double eagles, United States bonds amounting to $7,600, a note for $3,600 made by C. H. Read to order of Gardiner and endorsed by the latter to Mrs. Desanta Marina, a note for ten thousand dollars given by Gardiner to order of Mrs. Marina, 1,000 shares Princess mining stock, and a deed of real estate in Utica. Mrs. Gardiner sued the Central Deposit Company and Mrs. Marina to obtain possession of this property. The case was tried in the Supreme Court. The interest of the suit lay particularly in the testimony of Mrs. Marina. She said that when she separated from her husband in San Francisco, she received from him a gold check for the sum of thirty thousand dollars, which she gave to Gardiner at first soon after forming his acquaintance. He exchanged this check, she says, and used $20,000 of the proceeds in purchasing bonds for her. For the remaining $10,000 he gave her a check for $10,000 which is in the box in the Safe Deposit Company's vault. On some of the bonds he had bought for her, Mrs. Marina says, Gardiner told her to obtain funds and to loan H. Reid $3500, upon which amount he turned Reid's note over to her. Mrs. Marina's attorney, Frank W. Angell, testified that he was Gardiner's attorney, and that Gardiner whispered to him up to his death that the property with the Safe Deposit Company belonged to Mrs. Marina. An attorney named Howard, who accompanied Angell to Gardiner's bedside, corroborated Angell's testimony. Mrs. Gardiner and her sister, Mrs. Hutchinson, flatly contradicted the lawyers, declaring they were in constant attendance upon Gardiner and heard all he said to Mr. Angell. The trial was ended yesterday. The jury were out a long time. Being unable to agree upon a verdict, they were discharged.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PROBLEM.

Our Usual Morning Budget.

Much to Encourage Republicans, but Little Consolation for Democrats.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Enthusiastic Jollification and Parade over Last Week's Victories.

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—This afternoon the republicans fired 320 guns in honor of the victories in Ohio and Indiana and this evening held a torch-light procession which was by far the largest, handsomest and most enthusiastic demonstration of the campaign. The column was headed by a squad of police, followed by two platoons of mounted trumpeters and a company of pioneers. Then followed the republican league, 1000 strong, composed of solid business men of the city, escorted by the Garfield and Arthur fire brigade, the Gatling battery bringing up their rear. One hundred pioneers followed, and then came the army and navy league of Boys in Blue and Portuguese and Austrian republican clubs. These were followed by long lines of Garfield Invincibles in their handsome uniforms and after them the German republican clubs. A long cortege of carriages succeeded them, and the young men's Garfield and Arthur club, young men's republican club and Garfield and Arthur Blues, all in uniform, brought up the rear. Fifteen bands of music and numerous drum corps headed the various divisions. Lights were borne in wagons, and the constant discharge of rockets, bombs and fireballs accompanied the march. Bonfires, illuminations and fireworks at many points along the line of march lighted up the scene, and cheers from enthusiastic paraders and crowds that lined the streets and filled the windows rent the air. The column was over an hour in passing. At the termination of the route the procession gathered at the headquarters of the Garfield Invincibles, at Horticultural hall, where it disbanded.

Republican Majority in Indiana Nearly 6000.

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—Returns from all counties but two in the state give Porter 6742 majority. Those two counties gave 640 majority for the democrats in 1876. The senate is a tie. House 56 republicans, 43 democrats, 1 greenbacker. Republicans have eight congressmen.

Returns from all counties in the state except Ripley give Porter 5434 majority. Ripley gave a democratic majority in 1876.

The Indiana Senatorship.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The Tribune's Indianapolis special says: No sane man expects to reverse the result of the election in this state in November. Gen. Ben. Harrison is likely to succeed McDonald in the U. S. senate. Godlove S. Orth, John E. New and Wm. Dudley are also mentioned in connection with the senatorship.

An Independent View of Barnum's Cry.

Indianapolis, Oct. 17.—The News (independent) says of Barnum's claim that the republicans used fraud: "He lies in his throat. It was an honest, square, fair, full free election, and is expressive of the will of the people. Barnum is alone in his cry of 'fraud.'"

Indiana Congressional Delegation—8 Republicans and 5 Democrats.

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—Full returns from the 5th congressional district give E. C. Matson, dem., 801 majority, leaving the congressional delegation 8 republicans and 5 democrats.

Ohio's Majority Fully 20,000.

Columbus, Oct. 16.—Official returns have now been received from all the counties of Ohio, which show Townsend's majority for secretary of state is 19,824. In several counties containing large cities, Townsend was cut considerably on account of his temperance record. This did not have its effect on the balance of the ticket, and hence the average majority for all other candidates will be fully 20,000.

A Tremendous Boom.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The Inter-Ocean's Columbus special says: If the tide continues as now there will be fifty thousand republican majority in Ohio in November next. Sporting men have completely stopped and offer large odds on general results. The democratic state committee is in such a fearful state that they issued a wall of defiance to-day and will issue another next week. The victory grows greater as it is more considered. The greenback vote has fallen off half; the greenback vote last year was 10,000, this year practically nothing; republican plurality last year was 3031, this year 16,300; net republican gain of 13,000. Reports of the republican party are hourly reported.

Democrats will not Try to Win Ohio.

Columbus, Oct. 17.—The democrats will not make any effort in Ohio for the November election. Their speakers are all leaving for New York, and the managers are disgusted at the loss of the money they have put into the campaign.

Political Gossip.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The Times' Indianapolis special says English gives notice that he will open a big barrel for the November campaign and expects to carry Indiana.

The Times says Governor Stone of Mississippi opines that some southern states, notably Florida and Louisiana, are likely to be so affected by republican victories that they may go republican in November.

Some Connecticut democrats want to substitute their English for the Indiana specimen.

Judge Madden, a democrat of fifteen years at Monmouth, Illinois, has just come out for Garfield, and will make speeches.

There is some possibility that the newly elected republican supreme court justices of Indiana may reverse the decision of the democratic judiciary, which declared the constitutional amendments of the state not adopted. This would require another election for state officers in November. As such decision would also invalidate the election of the justices themselves, unlooked for consequences and complications would arise. The law question is now being considered.

The "Herald" Commends the Stand of the Republican Party on the Tariff Question.

The Herald says when Hancock wrote his letter on the rebel war claims everybody indorsed his position. His latest epistolary effort is, we regret to say, not equally successful. When Hancock was asked about the rebel claims he promptly and manfully replied that he would veto any bill of the kind if he were president, and the respectable part of the public was content at once; but on this tariff question, to put it mildly, the general confusion. That is useless, and worse than useless. It is damaging. The plain truth is that the republican party is the defender of the present tariff. It is useless for timid democrats, or old whigs training in democratic uniforms to try to muddle this matter. Republicans are meeting the full benefit of their recently begun frankness on the tariff question. The democrats are losing voters at both ends by their effort at facing two ways. They cannot delude voters who want the present tariff continued, and they disgust voters who want it reformed.

The New York "Sun" on the Southern Outlook.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Sun's Indianapolis special says the nomination of English, so far as it was intended by the unwise men who made it, to operate beneficially on Indiana, has turned out to be worse than a mistake. This has been an open secret for a long time past. In the next breath the Sun says: Indiana was carried by the republicans by fraud and corruption. Of Virginia politics and the south it says: The real position of Mahone ought to be understood by the democrats. He is not to be trusted for he has no political principles. He will trade with the side which he thinks will win. Virginia democrats know this and republicans also know it. There is no doubt that large sums of money are to be sent into those states, especially in Florida, where republicans are anxious to secure a successor to Senator Jones, whose term expires next March. Agents have already been sent to Florida and to North Carolina. As to Virginia, the republicans expect to make a bargain with Mahone.

Republican Gains in West Virginia over 8000.

Wheeling, Oct. 17.—Last returns do not alter the result of Tuesday's election. The total republican net gain so far as heard from are 8812.

Hancock Favors Tariff.

New York, Oct. 16.—A letter from Gen. Hancock, written Oct. 12th, is published in which he says he believes in fostering American industries and raising government revenues by tariff and so far as we are concerned all talk of free trade is folly. He endorses Eaton's bill or some similar one on tariff. He finds however inconsistencies in present tariff which should be readjusted.

Grant at Harvard.

Boston, Oct. 17.—General Grant visited Harvard to-day and lunched with the republican state central committee, to whom he made a short speech, good humoredly urging them all to vote and work on 2d November.

Compliment to Secretary Sherman.

Racine, Oct. 16.—Secretary Sherman had a grand reception here to-day and this evening in Milwaukee had a perfect ovation.

Arrests for False Registration.

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—Warrants are being issued by hundreds for the arrest of persons charged with frauds in registration, but hardly more than five per cent are followed by arrests, as most of them prove to be founded on errors or frivolous grounds. Where any evidence of fraudulent intent is manifest proceedings will be had.

McClellan Makes a Speech.

Trenton, N. J., October 16.—Gov. McClellan addressed a democratic meeting last evening. After a eulogy of Hancock, he said: The Democratic party supported the South before the war, not because it liked slavery, but because it respected the Constitution. When the war came it opposed the South for similar reasons. Two things united the South before the war—slavery and antitariff. The former is dead, and the South is fast becoming a manufacturing country. So these elements no longer exist. The Southern man is mortal, continued the Governor, the same as we are, and all that makes the South solid is the pressure of federal hands and carpet bag government. Remove that pressure, and the Solid South will cease to be solid. He didn't believe a man, North or South, desired the payment of war claims. He has no idea the Democrats would injure the government by interfering with the tariff question. He saw no cause for discouragement in the recent elections.

Congressional Nominations.

Cheyenne, Oct. 16.—The democracy have nominated M. E. Post, the well known banker and wool grower, for delegate to congress.

The Indiana Democratic Executive Committee Talk about "Deputy Marshals," "Africanization," "Fraud," etc., etc.

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—The democratic executive committee has issued the following address:

To Democratic and Independent Voters of Indiana.—The result of the election last Tuesday is a deep disappointment to us all. The extent of the success which the republican party has achieved in this state is not a surprise to republicans as to democrats, and proves the majority of the republican party was as ignorant of the means which their corrupt leaders were employing as we were. Temporarily the loss of our state is a calamity that time will cure, but the injury which our free institutions will sustain resulting from the frauds and corruptions practiced by the republican leaders to secure their triumph is incalculable. The causes which enabled the republican party to succeed in the elections—the partial success of their scheme to Africanize our state for political purposes, the corrupt use of money for the purchase of votes, the employment and use of repeaters protected by deputy marshals and aid demanded by them from the use of government machinery of elections under the pretense of supervising the election of members of congress—are now plain.

In the presidential election we will not have to encounter these forces to the same extent as in our state elections. Their corruption fund will have to be divided among many states. Their repeaters will be at home, and those of them discharged from arrests of the deputy marshals on straw bail will not likely make their appearance in our state again. We shall have no federal marshal or federal machinery to contend against. We are thoroughly united to our counsels, and whatever our adversaries may say to the contrary is untrue. We therefore call upon you not to relax any of your efforts, put new life and energy into your county and township organizations and take all measures in your power to bring out your full strength to the polls. The same votes polled by us in October, if polled in November, will secure to us the state. The average majority against us at the late election will not exceed 4300, and may fall below that. This majority can, and in our opinion will be overcome in the presidential election. A change of three votes in each precinct will accomplish it. Remember you have a leader in this contest who never counsels retreat, and he commands an army that never surrenders. Signed: W. H. English, Franklin Landers, T. A. Hendricks, Wm. Fleming, J. E. McDonald, J. M. Cooper, Otto Staly, executive committee; Jas. M. Rice, secretary.

GREETING TO GARFIELD.

The Business Men's Club of Cleveland Call to Congratulate him—He Responds in a Manly Non-Partisan Speech.

Cleveland, Oct. 16.—An excursion of thirteen cars under the auspices of the business men's club went to Mentor to-day to congratulate Garfield on the October elections. Garfield made a fitting speech. He greeted them as business men, as citizens of Ohio, and as citizens of the republic. He advanced the thought if all business men of the country could get a guarantee from the Supreme Being that there would be no disturbance for four years of the great forces that play on business prosperity of the people there is nothing they could not and would not undertake to do in that time. Of course such guaranty was impossible, but while frosts, pestilence and accidents may come, there is a great political organization in this country that can give you a policy underwritten by its faith and its own hands against all evil that can come to you from bad legislation and reckless wickedness of bad finance. For such insurance, business men of Cleveland and business men of America are manifestly willing to make some effort and bear some sacrifice and lastly I take it, is the business meaning of this assemblage here to-day. Now the second thought had was, you are citizens of Ohio and you are living illustrations of the first born children of the pioneers who planted Ohio. When your fathers were born Ohio was unknown except as a trackless wilderness, and yet where the smoke from out a dozen white men's cabins ascended to the sky. In all this territory, now there are a quarter of a million happy people, prosperous, honorable, successful. They are living and guiding the destinies of a people as great in numbers and wealth as all who inhabited the 13 colonies when our fathers won their independence. What a spectacle is that! All this prosperity was won by a simple, plain, straightforward process of downright hard work. This was what did it. Labor was first laid out on the raw material that God made, then capital, which is only another name for crystallized labor—labor saved up. Proud as you are of what you have been and what you have done for Cleveland and for Ohio, yet your pride rises at a little piece of bunting, a flag with stars and stripes, that speaks of a great continent, with a government that covers it from sea to sea, from the lakes to the gulf, and that you as citizens of that republic have a right to walk on every foot of it, the equal of any man that lives anywhere, and that the score of black men that I see here have just as good a right as the whitest of us all. Now these are the thoughts that come to me as I look upon these Cuyahoga faces. You are in the midst of a great contest, gentlemen, on that contest, on the struggle of it, on the issue of it, on my relation to it I say nothing. For the time being I am out of politics, but I am with you.

GOOD-BYE TO OREGON.

The Good Ship Sailed Away from Astoria with the Presidential Party Saturday Morning—Some Miscellaneous Points.

The steamship Columbia arrived at Astoria early Saturday morning. The Wide West, with the presidential party on board, ran alongside shortly after 8 o'clock and transferred them to the steamer, which immediately started for the bar. The Columbia commenced her voyage with a favoring tide and a stern breeze, and sailing under orders to go at her best speed, will doubtless make an easy and speedy passage. Indeed, before this paper has reached half its readers, the president and his friends will be safely on the land en route to Yosemite. The Wide West started immediately for Portland, carrying homeward a few less than a score of friends who had accompanied the presidential party down the river. A stoppage was made at Kalama, to land Gen. J. W. Sprague and wife, Mr. Otis Sprague, wife and child, Captain Stodder, Captain Strann and Major Hayden, who at once took a special train for Tacoma. Captain Reiter and Mr. Morrison, of Walla Walla, were taken on board here. Another stoppage was made upon reaching the steamer Vancouver in the Willamette, to allow General Howard and wife, General Sawtelle and Captain Sladen to board the Vancouver bound boat.

Notes.

The courtesies extended by the O. R. & N. Co. to the presidential party during their stay in the northwest were greater in point of money value than all other favors, public and private, accepted by them. They were carried nearly seven hundred miles by special boats and trains of this company and were bountifully entertained by its generosity more than a week in the aggregate. No business or private interest could have engaged at this season such special and rapid service for any sum. Either Mr. T. F. Oakes, the vice president and general manager of the company, or Capt. George J. Ainsworth, its superintendent, indeed, most of the time both of these gentlemen accompanied the party and saw personally that no attention tending to their rapid progress and entertainment was omitted. Through and prompt connections were everywhere made and not the slightest accident occurred.

General Sherman made one of his talks on the round the occasion for a handsome compliment to General J. W. Sprague. He referred to him as "a gentleman you all know, one whom I have known long, intimately and well, one whose word is fact and whose integrity is beyond the approach of doubt."

The president, in speaking of the favors of the company toward himself and his friends, said that not since leaving Washington had they received such continuous and prompt service at the hands of any single corporation. In contrast, transportation on Puget sound cost at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars per day. Transportation from Kalama to the sound and return over the Northern Pacific line was by special train furnished by the courtesy of General Sprague.

By far the prettiest and most elaborate decoration in honor of the president was the work of the ladies of Kalama. The passenger coach which met the party there was ornamented with a richness and taste approaching the artistic. Evergreens hung in waving festoons from the ceiling and above the windows, while each intervening panel was ornamented by a wreath with a vase of natural flowers for its center.

One of the most elegant dinners given the presidential party was on board the steamboat Wide West. Mrs. Hayes personally complimented and thanked the steward Fred, Ernst for the completeness of his service and entertainment.

The name of the gentleman who delivered the address of welcome at Tacoma, was by accident omitted in telegraphing. It was by Hon. Elwood Evans, and had the important merits of cordiality, facts about the locality and its needs, and brevity.

DELEGATE BRENTS AT VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, Oct. 16, 1880.

Last night, as per announcement, Mr. Brents, candidate for congress on the republican ticket, addressed the citizens of Vancouver on the political topics of the day.

He spoke in glowing terms of the brilliant success of the old party, which saved the union, and predicted the election of Garfield, and a speedy admission of Washington into the union of states. He was frequently interrupted by applause, especially when referring to the recent "have you heard from Ohio and Indiana?"

During the evening Mr. Brents was handed a telegram from Governor Newell, the new executive of Washington territory, saying he would leave San Francisco by next steamer and take the stump immediately for Brents, on his arrival in the territory.

Foster & Co's new ferry Veto No. 2 has arrived at our city front amid the hearty congratulations of the citizens of Vancouver and Clarke county who desire to trade with Portland or take a pleasant drive over the magnificent road now to be seen from the Oregon shore to East Portland.

The first hack, owned by Mr. Smith, will start to-day, and will make two trips each day. The proprietor has volunteered to furnish four large hacks to carry Vancouver republicans to Portland on next Tuesday evening to join hands with Portland in rejoicing over the recent success in Indiana and Ohio.

To-morrow the ferry will give a free ride to our people, and speeches, singing, and a good time will be the order of the day.

OBITUARY.

Chas. W. Emerson.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 17.—Charles W. Emerson, well known in Utah as a mining operator, and brother of Judge Emerson, fell dead here to-day.

President of Paraguay.

London, Oct. 17.—Don Cardilo Barera, president of the republic of Paraguay, is dead, and General Cabellaro, minister of the interior, succeeds to the presidency.

Forest Fires.

Nashua, N. H., Oct. 16.—A destructive forest fire is raging near Brookline and Mason. Six hundred acres have been devastated, and 200 people are worn out fighting the fire. Buildings and mills are in danger.

"TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF THE UNION."

Address of the Republican National Committee.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.

New York, Oct. 16.—The republican national committee has issued the following:

To the Republican Voters of the Union: The elections of Tuesday last clearly show that with continued zeal and systematic effort the republican triumph in November will be complete and overwhelming. Our plurality in Ohio is about 20,000, being a gain of 5063 over the exceptionally large plurality of 1879, while the election of 15 or 16 congressmen gives the republicans a gain of six members. Our plurality in Indiana reaches about 6000, being a gain of 21,000 on the democratic plurality in 1876. In the legislature we have a majority of 14 in contrast with the democratic majority of 26 in the last legislature, thus giving us a senator. Of 13 congressional districts eight have been carried, making a gain of two members. The result in each state, and especially in Ohio, is a conclusive answer of the people to the false and malignant assaults upon the personal character of our candidate for president, which thus far have been the principal weapons of our opponents, and have been indecently and shamelessly repeated in addresses this day published by their stunned and demoralized national committee. Both these victories are the result of a spontaneous and enthusiastic uprising of the people in favor of political principles, enlightened legislation and good government. That in Indiana has been won in spite of the lavish expenditure of money by the democratic candidate for vice president, who was nominated solely for that purpose, and by eastern emissaries, who in 1876 vainly attempted to purchase the presidency, and have recently traversed that state shouting against and at the same moment perpetrating frauds made possible by the loosest election laws existing in any state in the union, and which were purposely retained in force by the democratic judicial outrage. It is apparent from these results, if republicans do not relax exertion that every northern state will choose republican presidential electors, while not improbably some southern states will give their votes for Garfield and Arthur. Of 17 members necessary to make the next house of representatives, the republicans have already gained 10 in Oregon, Vermont, Ohio and Indiana, and the full result is reasonably certain. Six senators necessary to make the senate with the vice president republican, will probably be secured from the states of Ohio and Indiana, already gained, and from Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, to elect; thus, with the inauguration of Garfield and Arthur, all branches of the government are likely to be republican once more. Republicans, however, need be reminded of remaining dangers. Disappointed democratic leaders will not shrink from desperate acts to prevent full republican success. They have a majority in both houses. Congress claims full power over the final presidential count and has steadily refused to secure peaceable and orderly decisions of a doubtful result. Let no possible effort be spared to make the republican majority on the electoral vote so large as to avert the perils of disputed counting and the majority in the next house of representatives so decisive that there can be no conflict in its organization. By unremitting exertions such as have secured the brilliant achievements in Ohio and Indiana, the republican party can defeat the purposes of reactionists, who, in order to gain political power and patronage, are willing to undo the results of the war for the union; change the financial and revenue policy of the government, derange our national currency, and jeopardize the thriving business interests of the country. Republican success will, on the other hand, firmly establish throughout the country a free and honest ballot, protect to life and property, well-paid and contented labor, activity in all agricultural, manufacturing, mechanical and commercial pursuits, and will make the states of our union prosperous and powerful beyond those of any other nation.

By order of the committee.

MARSHALL JEWELL, chairman.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

Explosion in a Distillery—Seven Lives Lost.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—A corn cooker in Powell's distillery on Twenty-second street exploded to-day with terrific effect, killing seven persons and wounding four. Most of the killed are buried under the ruins, and of the explosion is still unknown. The cooker was eighteen feet high and six feet wide, and of iron. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The cause of the explosion in the cooker in Powell's distillery yesterday was an experiment which was being tried to hasten the process of distillation. Corn was put in unbroken, and kernels having filled up the tubes, team pressure was brought to bear on it to force the corn out. This arrangement had worked well several times before, but was disastrous yesterday. There were several miraculous and hairbreadth escapes. The boiler was blown into a hundred pieces and jagged pieces thrown through the air hundreds of feet, one piece going three blocks. Four bodies were recovered last night and four to-day. Among the latter was that of a little daughter of Mrs. Horek, who was buried in the ruins. The injured are suffering terribly from scalds and bruises, but will probably all recover.

A Fatal Explosion.

Troy, N. J., October 16.—At a Republican demonstration at Johnsonville last night, Charles Petting, Mellie Welling, Charles Thomas, John Fay, and J. Frenchman, name unknown, were injured by an explosion of a cannon. Two will die.

Fatal Row between Teamsters.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 16.—A special from Bavill says: Jack Pierce shot and killed Joseph Hornbeck. The parties are teamsters with Major Powell's outfit. A mob threatens to lynch Pierce.

Suicide.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 16.—Saturday afternoon a stranger stopped at the house of Albert Kobs six miles west of this city. After supper he drank something from a small vial in his possession. During the night Kobs was awakened by the visitor walking about the floor and then going out doors. He was soon afterwards found on the porch dead. At the coroner's inquest to-day it was shown that his name was Dr. Henry Aarons, and that he had taken strychnine with suicidal intent. He left a note to that effect, directing persons to inquire about him from several parties in Baxter county, Arkansas. He is a stranger here.

Murderous Chinamen.

Tucson, Oct. 16.—This morning as the train for Tucson was pulling out of San Simon, a large number of Chinamen boarded it. They had no passes and offered no money, but demanded passage. Mr. Martin, the conductor, demanded their fare, when they turned on him with clubs and he was forced to draw his revolver. At the first fire he killed a Chinaman. No arrests so far as the act is believed to have been in self defense.

Instantly Killed.

Carson, Nev., Oct. 17.—This morning Patrick McGown, while charging pans at Brunswick mill, was caught by a belt, carried around the drum and killed.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

A Breach.

Dublin, Oct. 16.—It is admitted that there is a breach between the priesthood and land league, which will widen.

Liberated.

Dublin, Oct. 17.—Four persons suspected of the murder of Lord Mountmorris have been liberated.

Italian Monks Expelled.

Paris, Oct. 17.—Four Italian monks have been ordered to quit France in twenty-four hours. The police at Agen forced the doors and expelled the carmelites.

Heavy Import of Money.

Havre, Oct. 15.—The Wieland took 12,000,000 francs for New York.

France Exports 35,000,000 Francs.

Paris, Oct. 16.—Thirty million francs has been sent to the United States, fifteen millions to England, ten millions to Egypt and ten millions to Austria.

The Pope Counsels Peace.

Rome, Oct. 16.—The pope is more than ever resolved not to interfere in the political affairs of nations on account of Irish troubles, and exhorts the bishops to observe their mission of peace.

To be Present at the Surrender.

Cettinje, Oct. 17.—Commanders of the international squadron have been requested to delegate officers on behalf of each power to be present at the surrender of Dulcigno.

To Arrange for Surrender.

Bosnia, Oct. 16.—The Turkish government has sent a commissioner to arrange for the surrender of Dulcigno.

Defending Smyrna.

London, Oct. 17.—It is reported that the Turks are placing torpedoes to defend Smyrna.

American Grain in Europe.

Berlin, October 16.—It is reported that in the next session of the Reichstag a motion will be introduced for the reduction of duty on grain by about six cents. A report on the Swiss grain trade states that the presence of large imports of American grain and flour received by way of Rotterdam and Antwerp had a very reassuring effect.

South Africa.

Cape Town, October 16.—At Mafeling, where Carrington and force are besieged, was quite safe up to the 11th instant. A relieving force will leave Weappener on the 17th.

MEXICO.

New Cabinet—Pursuit of Criminals—Rumor of New Railroad—Indian Troubles.

City of Mexico, Oct. 8.—Via Havana.—The Gonzales Diaz party has arranged the following cabinet: Minister of foreign affairs and chief of cabinet, Vicente Palacio; minister of treasury, J. Toro; minister of war, Gen. Marinyel; general in chief of Mexican army, Porfirio Diaz.

Hegerie, who has hitherto eluded capture, was taken prisoner in Puebla, but escaped. The papers of Hegrie fell into the hands of the government, and surprising disclosures are expected.

The papers say the principal assassin of Greenwood, the American engineer, is positively known. He is named by 250 men.

The executive has been asked to allow United States troops to cross the frontier in pursuit of Indians. The request has caused profound alarm, although the Mexicans are offered the same privilege.

Romero, formerly minister at Washington, has come from the United States and reports that he intends to organize a railway company for Mexico, in connection with Gen. Grant.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Nova Scotia Mines.

Halifax, N. S., October 16.—Dr. J. H. Rae, mining expert of Colorado and California, has arrived from New York, to make a general inspection of the Nova Scotia mines.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

ELEVENTH BIENNIAL SESSION.

SPECIALLY REPORTED AND TELEGRAPHED TO THE OREGONIAN.

Senate.

The senate was called to order at 9 A. M.

Roll call; quorum present.

On motion of Colvig reading of journal dispensed with.

S. J. R. 1—To purchase 100 volumes, Nos. 7 and 8 and 20 volumes No. 1 of supreme court decisions for state library and distribution among state officers and to exchange with other states. On motion report conference committee adopted.

Grim moved to reconsider vote on S. B. 5 to provide for sale of real estate for delinquent taxes thereon, by which said bill was lost; the motion prevailed and bill passed.

ENROLLED BILLS.

S. Bs. 72, 75, 104 and 101 were reported properly enrolled.

Cochran moved that minority report on S. B. 119, to assist in propagation of salmon and other food fishes in the waters of this state be taken up.

The president ruled the motion out of order.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

That S. J. R. 2—The right to vote shall hereafter not be restricted to any citizen on account of sex, had passed.

Haines moved that report of committee on corporations on S. B. 26, granting O. R. & N. Co. right of way through lands in Oregon be adopted; carried, and on motion of Haines ordered engrossed and reported back to take its proper place on the table; motion carried.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

S. B. 38—To regulate price of state lands known as part of the 500,000 acre grant in Union county. Bill passed.

S. B. 30—For relief of W. W. Buck, for furnishing supplies to volunteers in 1864. Bill passed.

S. B. 40—To amend section 10, title 3, chapter 61, miscellaneous laws of Oregon, relating to assessment of property and the levy and collection of taxes. Bill was lost.

Burch moved to reconsider vote by which S. B. 38 was passed.

Wright moved that the motion to reconsider be indefinitely postponed. Motion prevailed.

S. B. 71—To enlarge the corporate limits of the city of Corvallis. Passed.

S. B. 19—To create a board of inspectors for the penitentiary and to provide for government of the institution, and to appoint Asa A. McCully, D. Froman and R. H. Dearborn as such board of inspectors. Bill lost.

Apperson was granted leave of absence until Monday.

Communication from Mrs. Duniway, inviting the senate to participate in a grand ratification reception at Reed's opera house in Salem, on Thursday evening, Oct. 21, 1880.

On motion of Smith the invitation was accepted.

Senate took recess until 1:30 P. M.

Afternoon Session.

Senate was called to order at 2 o'clock by the President; roll call; quorum present.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

S. B. 14—To amend section 1, chapter 38, miscellaneous laws of Oregon relating to persons establishing claims or quartz locations containing precious metals, giving said persons possession of land or vein with all dips, spurs and angles for the distance of 1,000 feet in length along the vein or lode, and 300 feet each side middle vein or lode at the surface of the ground whereon said vein is located; passed.

COMMUNICATION FROM SECRETARY OF STATE.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE, Salem, Oregon, Oct. 16, 1880.

To the Honorable the President of the Senate Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon—I deem it my duty as fiscal agent of the state to respectfully call the attention of your honorable body to the present condition of the state agricultural college fund by the large issue of warrants against the swamp land fund. These warrants were issued several years since. The law at the time by its terms of ten year payment was not calculated to create a fund sufficiently rapid to meet these warrants, hence they were not paid but became a debt against the state. Had the legislature so changed this law as to have brought these lands into the market at once these warrants amounts to about $17,000 per annum would not be accumulating against the state. The interest through the inactivity of the present law, practically absorbs, say 14,000 acres of this grant each and every year. The amendment which seems necessary is to remove the reclamation clause in the existing law and have it like were done these warrants and interest would be paid in a very short time. If it is not done the annual interest alone will have absorbed the greater part of the swamp lands of the state before any sales are made. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

R. P. EARHART, Secretary of State.

On motion of Knight ordered printed.

S. B. 14—To prevent tug boats from discriminating between vessels; passed.

S. B. 87—For the relief of Union county in the sum of $755, from irreducible school funds, for error committed by county superintendent in transcribing the number of school children in said county; passed.

S. B. 86—To provide for time and place of holding terms of supreme, circuit and county courts; passed.

ENGROSSMENTS.

S. Bs. 53, 81, 86, 105, 134, and 110 were reported properly engrossed, and also S. B. 58, granting Oregon railway right of way through lands of the state of Oregon, also necessary grounds for stations, depots, side tracks, turn-tables and water stations.

Cohen moved that S. B. 58 be ordered engrossed.

Lee was opposed to the bill because it was not printed. He was unacquainted with the merits of the bill. The author of the bill states that it is similar to H. B. 120. That may be so, but I do not think the senate should read the bill or senate bill 90. It is not the correct way. If we want to discuss it intelligently it will be necessary to have it printed so we may understand what it contains.

Smith desired that actual settlers should be more protected, and thought that the bill was not a good one.

Fulton criticised the different features of the bill. He was averse to voting until the property understood it.

Cohen explained the main objects of the bill. It was almost the same, word for word, as H. B. 120. The difference between the two was very slight. It was a meritorious bill, and he hoped it would pass the senate.

McConnell—Mr. President, I am opposed to a bill of this character being smuggled into the senate in this manner. Why was this bill not printed and laid on our desks so that we might examine into its merits and demerits? It occurs to me there is an opportunity to conceal a very large steal thousands among the various preambles and whereases of this bill. The senator from Marion suggests there are no opponents in Oregon. But, Mr. President, I think some of the lands in Umatilla county, claimed as swamp lands, must be inhabited by that legislation. This is an important measure and the friends of the bill might have introduced it in time to have had it printed, and then it could have been passed upon in an intelligent manner; as it now stands I will vote against it, and I hope the bill will not pass.

On motion of Knight the further consideration of S. B. 58 was postponed until Monday at 2 o'clock P. M. and then to be made a special order of business.

S. B. 83—To provide for payment of soldiers of Indian wars of 1877-78 in the state of Oregon; passed.

S. B. 63—To authorize Dallas city to convey to Independent academy certain lands in said city; passed.

S. B. 66—To grant to the Oregonian Railway Company, Limited, the right of way over state lands and terminal facilities upon the public grounds in the city of Portland.

Haines explained his vote by saying the question of title was in doubt and he was opposed to it, so he would vote no.

Simon took up the question of title and explained to the senate the reasons of his voting, commenting on the willful effort of the Oregonian Limited Company to become possessors of the whole water front to the permanent injury of the merchants in the city of Portland. It is an attempt to appropriate property which belongs to that city. The legality of the bill even if passed will be a question which the courts will have to certainly decide in favor of the citizens of Portland. He characterized ordering the previous question on S. B. 69, which motion was made and carried by the majority of the senate immediately upon the reading of the bill, thereby preventing any discussion whatever upon its merits, as a greater wrong than the passage of the bill. He will enter his protest on Monday against the ordering of the previous question upon so important a measure and also against the passage of the bill.

Mr. President, my reasons for asking to be excused from voting on this measure is this. I am in the minority here to-day. The history of this corporation which is demanding this franchise has not a parallel in the history of the world. This incorporation appeared through its agents first as money loaners, not as railroad men. They spread their nets over the fertile fields of this valley until, as has been asserted upon this senate floor, they hold mortgages amounting to the vast sum of $800,000 in Linn county alone. The same condition prevails in other counties in this state. They hold the farmers of this valley in their grasp until they dare not contend for the right. It is demanded of them that they petition their representatives here to pass their franchise. By the operations of these money loaners I am placed with the minority here to-day. This is the reason I ask to be excused from voting, as I well know the majority is not willing to listen to the voice of reason or justice.

Mr. President, I now desire to explain my vote, as the previous question has been asked, I have no further right. I went before the committee to whom this bill was referred and asked them to report an amendment providing for compensation to the property owners along the streets confiscated by this road. They listened to me so far as striking out Front street from the grab, but I was not, nor am I, satisfied with that alone. The rights of a single individual, though his property may be situated on Water street, are as sacred to this senate as the rights of the rich owners on Front street, and as shown by this bill, a far greater outrage is to be perpetrated upon the owners of property on Water street than was asked for Front street. It was asked to run a tramway with horse cars, to be run in the night only down Front street, while this grants the right to construct a double track on another street with the privilege of running steam cars at all hours. I think the bill is unjust in its provisions, an outrage upon the rights of private citizens, and I shall oppose it. I vote no.

The following was the vote on S. B. 69:

Yeas—Bilyeu, Burch, Clow, Cochran, Gates, Grim, Hendricks, Humphrey, Knight, Lee, Pennington, Siglin, Smith, Sifers, Starkweather, Tyson, Waldo and Woodward.

Noes—Colvig, Davidson, Fulton, Haines, McConnell, Ross, Simon, Stearns, Waters, Wright, Mr. President—11.

Absent—Apperson of Clackamas.

The bill was therefore passed.

Senate adjourned till Monday.

House.

The house met pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Speaker in the chair and a quorum of members present.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

Bievans offered the following:

Mr. Speaker—I desire to give notice that I shall on to-morrow or some subsequent day move a suspension of the rules of this house preparatory to the reconsideration of the vote by which S. J. R. 2 was adopted for the following reasons, to-wit:

1st. I have good and reasonable cause to believe that bribery and intimidation have been resorted to by one or more of the friends of S. J. R. 2 in order to secure its passage.

2d. The house had no quorum at the time of the adoption of said S. J. R. 2 if what Abigail Scott Duniway says in the columns of the Daily Oregon Statesman of the 14th inst. be true, for where there are no brains there can be no presence.

H. B. 56—Amending election law in reference to challenge of voters; read a second time, ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

Committee reported on

H. B. 16—For relief of George K. Shiel and recommended its passage; report adopted.

Committee on counties reported amendments to H. B. 55, fixing salaries of county judges and recommended its passage.

Committee reported back H. B. 63, for the prevention of cruelty to animals and recommended that it do pass. Referred to a special committee consisting of Wagoner, Plummer and Thompson, with leave to report at any time.

The committee of conference on S. J. R. 1, to provide for the purchase of supreme court reports, submitted amendments to the resolution and recommended its adoption. The report was adopted and the resolution concurred in as amended.

The speaker appointed Wilson, Barrett, Sharp, Stanley and Tuttle as committee to visit the orphan asylum.

Savage offered H. J. M., for aid for construction of a wagon road to Nestucca, which was read and adopted.

Committee reported H. B. 23, for the prevention of cruelty to animals, with amendments, and recommended its passage. The report was adopted and the bill passed; ayes 42, noes 10. This bill is a measure much needed in some parts of the state, and credit is due Dr. Plummer of Multnomah, for the persistence he has shown in urging its passage.—Reporter.

H. B. 75—An act to annex Oswego precinct, now in Clackamas county, to Multnomah county; reported correctly engrossed, read third time and lost, ayes 23, noes 21, absent 12.

The report of special committee on H. B. 78, to amend the rules for pleading in civil actions; read and adopted. Bill ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

H. B. 32—To amend the act to regulate roads; read third time under suspension of the rules, put on its final passage and lost, ayes 30, noes 15, absent 15.

Greer of Marion was called to the chair.

H. B. 114—To amend section 24, title 1, chapter 50, miscellaneous laws, and to provide for the collection of delinquent road tax; read second time by title.

Committee on ways and means submitted H. J. R. 1, directing the state board of education to make an effort to collect the amount due from Washington territory for tuition of pupils in the deaf mute school of this state; read and adopted.

H. B. 47—For relief of George K. Shiel; read third time, put on its final passage and passed, ayes 32, noes 11, absent 17.

On motion the house adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

House met at 1:30 P. M.

Bird offered resolution allowing each member to select one house bill and have same acted on to the exclusion of all bills not so selected. Laid on table.

Wagoner presented petition of citizens of Monroe asking confirmation of title to burying ground.

MONDAY MORNING OCT 18 1880

A TIMELY ADDRESS.

The republican national committee have issued an address on the late victories pitched in a tone of proper exultation and triumph. But what is better the address indicates that the effort which up to this time has resulted so auspiciously is not to be relaxed but is to be pushed with additional vigor at all points. Success in Indiana, hitherto a democratic state and the great majority in Ohio, are rightly deemed results which promise the entire electoral vote of the northern states to Garfield and Arthur, and in fact there can hardly be a doubt of it if republicans push the campaign during the next two weeks with the energy which a great cause has a right to claim. Nothing now but over-confidence can prevent the November victory. Republicans of every state in which there is possibility of a contest must do their duty. As the democrats still have the solid south, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, or New York, New Jersey and either California, Oregon or Nevada would be enough to give them the election; or New York, Connecticut and California would do it. Or all again New York, Connecticut, Nevada and Oregon would suffice them. But as this is the best statement that can possibly be made in their behalf it will be seen that their chance is of the smallest, but still it must be considered a chance. Republicans must so consider it, in order to guard themselves against a feeling of security which might be fatal and which in fact is the only thing that can now defeat them.

It begins to be apparent that in this [illegible], as presented in this contest, a majority of the people of the whole country are still opposed to the democratic party. We say of the whole country, for the vast majority which the southern states will show for the democratic party, and which probably will be made to appear in excess of the popular republican majorities in the north, will be obtained by suppression of the republican vote and by false counting of the returns. The southern states, on a free vote and a fair count, would almost certainly show a popular republican majority on the aggregate returns, while in the northern states the republican majority is not likely to fall much short of half a million. In no northern state can any democratic majority be claimed with the least confidence of certainty, while there are many in which the republican majorities will run from twenty thousand to sixty thousand each. Hence it is easy to make good the statement that a majority of the people, not only of the northern states but of the entire country, are opposed to the democratic party. And therefore only an excess of confidence and consequent relaxation of effort can throw away the republican victory.

The causes which have led to the present political situation lie in the popular estimate of the comparative worthiness of the two parties. Four years ago the republican party was heavily loaded. Many of its most earnest supporters had been alienated. Criticism of General Grant's administration had produced a great effect. Then again the industry and business of the country were still depressed. It was difficult to meet the arguments which demanded "a change." Still further, the democratic party had long been on its good behavior—that is, it had lacked opportunity to show itself in its true character, and people had begun to think that adversity might have produced amendment in it. For all these reasons there was some disposition to trust it. Then Mr Tilden was before the country as a reformer. He had not yet been unmasked. He therefore got a tremendous vote and actually carried four northern states, while he came extremely near carrying several more. But since then things have changed. For four years the republican party has given the country an unexceptionable administration, and is therefore invincible to assault on the side where, four years ago, it was much exposed. Within these four years prosperity has been restored in all parts of the country, and business was never so active and prosperous as now. This again is a great republican argument. The finances of the country have been restored to a sound and stable condition, a result which must be set down chiefly to the credit of the republican party, since it was the policy of that party that brought about resumption, and sustained it against democratic efforts to defeat and overthrow it. The national debt has been funded at a low rate of interest and [illegible] annual saving to the country. This too is a result which is naturally associated in the public mind with the policy of the republican party, under which there has been rigid adherence to measures for improving and sustaining the public credit. Nor is it forgotten that the democratic party did all it could to defeat resumption and to repeal the resumption act. And, perhaps [illegible] the violence of that party in the extra session [illegible] membered against it. Under the leadership of the southern brigadiers it proposed again to set up state sovereignty over national authority, and proclaimed its purpose to wipe out the last vestige of war legislation. But its success as a "wiper" is shown by the wiping out it got for itself in the elections of last year, which is being repeated. Its coming into full power in congress revealed its true character, as [illegible] the country does not want to [illegible]. It has been the advocate of every scheme to flood the country with cheap currency and to dishonor the national debt by pretending to "pay" it with promises to pay. It has encouraged communism by [illegible] doctrines which have made large classes believe that it was somehow the duty of government to take care of them, and that resources could be found for their support and prosperity elsewhere than in their own industry and thrift. It has encouraged [illegible] ism of the solid south, whose existence is a menace to the fundamental conditions of free government. It has arrayed against itself all who are generous enough to hate a gross political wrong, as the organized solid south is, and all who look beyond the results of mere partisan triumph to the danger of general disorder to the vast business interests of the country.

Such an advantage, therefore, as the republican party now has can be lost only by remissness of republicans themselves. The tide is with them; let them see that they take advantage of it. And here in Oregon, though republicans are so well assured of carrying the state, let them relax no effort. Make the majority, as a jury sometimes does a judgment, an exemplary one.

NEW YORK.

There are many reasons why the republicans should expect to carry New York in the coming election. Last year they carried it, but the vote was not full. Stronger reasons than those furnished by the success of last year, and even stronger ones than those furnished by the proof from Ohio and Indiana that the 'set' of the tide is with the republican party may be obtained from candid examination of the present situation in New York as compared with that of four years ago. Mr Tilden had 32,000 majority over Mr Hayes in New York. This might seem a pretty formidable majority to overcome; but when it is recollected that many republicans in the state voted for Tilden—some because he belonged to their own state and was popular as its governor, some because they were dissatisfied with the national administration and were seduced and misled by Tilden's promises of reform—it is not surprising that he got many thousands of votes more than the legitimate strength of his party. Then the democrats had all the power and patronage of every department of the state government in their favor; now it is all against them. Then the republicans were divided in sentiment and at war on various leading questions; now all is union and entire harmony both as to measures and candidates. Then the shadow of the prolonged business panic had only been partially lifted; now prosperity smiles on every hand and a change is what above all things the people will desire to avoid. Then Mr Tilden supported by his own canvass and backed by his local knowledge, his vast organizing power, the great patronage of the state and his omnipotent 'barrel' he certainly for the purposes of carrying New York was the strongest man his party could nominate. No one supposes it possible for the democratic managers to make such a fight for Hancock as Tilden made for himself and moreover there is now no republican dissatisfaction to build upon. All the independent republicans as well as the stalwarts, are supporting Garfield and Arthur with the greatest earnestness and heavy business interests which were solid for Mr Tilden are now as solid for the republican candidates. Under these circumstances the chances of the republicans in New York go beyond possibility or even probability, and approach the line of certainty. Even without New York republican success would be possible but under no possible conditions can the democrats win without that state.

COL LARRABEE AGAIN.

We have spoken on one or two occasions of the army record of Col Larrabee, who has been making speeches in the character of a soldier in behalf of Gen Hancock, and denouncing as unfaithful to public duty better men than himself. Other information concerning his army record has since come to us, which is not more creditable to his efficiency as a soldier than that which we had formerly received. In Oregon and Washington there are not a few Wisconsin soldiers who know his record thoroughly. The source from which we had the information we gave the other day is, as we said then, quite at his service, but he has not called for it. Mr. A Samuels of Derry, Polk county, who was quartermaster of the 5th Wisconsin, (from whom by the way we had not the information on which the statements we published the other day were based) now informs us, however, that Larrabee was for a time a colonel in the field. We make this statement as the only correction of the former one which truth seems to require. After he left the 5th Wisconsin the person from whom we had the statement first given, lost sight of him. We have it now from Mr. Samuels that he was for a time colonel of the 24th Wisconsin. But he left the field at an early period of the war, or when the war grew into a serious business, and we have it from numerous sources that his record as a soldier was, as we stated the other day, one which no man would have occasion to brag about. On inquiry we find that it is known to a large number that there can be no mistake about it. Men like Col. Larrabee would do well not to assail others as recreant to public duty. And here, perhaps it may be as well, since Col. Larrabee has been perambulating Oregon, expounding his political views in behalf of Gen Hancock, and denouncing Gen Garfield and trying to make himself appear as a man having special commission through his own lofty character as a soldier, patriot and moralist to do this,—it may, we say, be as well to print the following which has been furnished us from Puget Sound as an extract from a letter said to have been written by him from Ruby Creek just after the nomination of Gen Hancock: "The mail has just arrived, bringing news of the nomination of Gen Hancock by the democratic convention. The democratic party has committed the mistake which we were hoping the republican party would commit, namely, the nomination of a military man for the presidency. The country is sick and tired of military men. For my part, as soon as I can fix up matters here and get away, I shall come down and advocate to the best of my ability the election of the experienced statesman, James A. Garfield." The OREGONIAN tenders to Col. Larrabee the use of its columns for answer whether he ever wrote a letter containing this passage, or not.

Do the democratic organs want to make General Garfield's election unanimous? It would seem so from the way that, not satisfied with the results of their campaign of defamation, they continue to denounce him as a "[illegible]," a "perjurer," a "[illegible]," [illegible] all [illegible] of this kind which has been running through their columns for months past, in finding their cartoons whose only effect is to disgust all people of decent sensibilities. Do the elections furnish no [illegible] in answer to this stream of unseemly vilification? "I make never a vote against Garfield," and [illegible] are only indulging their indecent [illegible], to nothing. But there are little [illegible] who, if they have not something of this kind, have no stock in trade. The great questions on which a great contest is being decided are far above their comprehension, and every argument which moves a great people goes entirely over their heads, while they still grovel and root in the mire of defamation.

On Saturday evening the senate passed the levee grab bill. Of course the legislature has no more right or power to vote to the Oregon railway company or to any other company the property of the city of Portland, than it has to vote to said company or any other company the ownership of the police court building or Ladd's bank. It is simply a bill to force on the city a law suit upon the city of Portland, and the senate has passed it under the [illegible] and with the intent that something may be done to Portland by it. Portland objected to seizure of its property and to obstruction of its most important business street and that was argument enough to cause the passage of the bill. But the city will make this a test case in the courts, to see if it has any property which a legislature hostile to its interests and influenced by a paid lobby, can not wrest from it and give away.

Besser has put the levee grab bill through the senate and says he will put it through the house. Then he will put the charter bill through the senate and come home, expecting to be chief of police and 'boss' of the city of Portland. Possibly and even probably the governor's veto will come in on these measures. Gov Thayer has a reputation to sustain which demands this interposition on his part. But if this fails then the courts will protect the city of Portland against the attempted seizure of its property, and the people of Portland in their municipal elections will protect themselves against the bummers and jobbers who are putting up a scheme to rule the city.

In attempting to wrestle with the tariff question Gen Hancock has got himself into a bad predicament for the leader of a great party. The controlling element of his party is for free trade, but there are protectionists in it, and these he fears the platform adopted by his party which is distinctly free trade will drive away. And as he wants to hold them he is talking a deal of nonsense on the tariff question professing to be both for free trade and for protection at the same time. This insincerity the New York Herald rightly criticises, declaring that it will satisfy neither those who favor the protective tariff nor those who want it changed.

It is proper to say that the house as a body should not be censured for the passage of the Portland charter bill. The censure should fall entirely on the Multnomah delegation inasmuch as the Multnomah delegation recommended and no remonstrance had been made up to that time by the people of Portland it was only natural that the house should pass the bill. But the Multnomah delegation knew or it was their business to know that the people of Portland do not want this charter as now proposed and they are without possible excuse [illegible].

The legislature is showing no disposition to do anything except that which it ought not to do. A body which allows itself to be run by a lobby like that [illegible] change its course before it can be called an honest [illegible]. But there is small probability that its course will be changed. Every job proposed is now likely to be pronounced through. In this body there is a republican majority. If anything could prevent the election of a republican legislature next time and for years to come it is the record which the present legislature is making.

The present legislature seems to be getting near the small pox stage. It is not forgotten that some ten years ago a legislature which threatened the state with great evils was fortunately dispersed by the breaking out of the small pox among the members, and the state was saved. Small pox as a malady was not known to medicine till about the sixth century and it was always an insoluble puzzle to medical science to account for the conditions under which it was first produced till its breaking out in the legislature of Oregon gave the explanation.

We believe it is an historical fact that the democracy were routed on the third day at Gettysburg. It therefore seems rather ungracious as well as a note of evil omen for the democratic national committee in their address to remind the democracy of the solid south, who are the democratic party of this piece of bad luck, which attended the most vigorous effort to carry the north which they ever made.

Of all the northern states Indiana was the one that the democrats had the best right to count on and as they can't carry that state it now becomes almost certain that they can't carry any. The truth is that when the democratic managers started in on this campaign they considered Indiana as sure for Hancock as Kentucky. The disenchantment as to Indiana frightens them out of their boots about New York.

It cannot be doubted that the majority in Pennsylvania for Garfield will be a prodigious one and as the tariff question is now coming to the front, it is likely to go from sixty to seventy-five thousand. When it comes to voting for protection Pennsylvania is nearly unanimous.

It is almost certain that after the 4th of March the republicans will again control both branches of congress. The address of the national republican committee shows the reasons for expecting this result.

What the Press Says.

OREGONIAN—The Elegant Silk Dresses at Litt's are perfect in design.

SUNDAY MORNING STANDARD—The critics were satisfied that Mrs. Litt is perfect in the art of Dressmaking, etc.

SUNDAY MERCURY—Having knowledge in the art of Dressmaking, we consider the display the finest we have ever seen.

EAST PORTLAND VINDICATOR—We are gratified to report the success of our friend Litt, whose Dresses are the most elegant.

Mrs. Duniway, proprietor of "New Northwest," will give a full account in the weekly issue. Read it.

EVENING TELEGRAM (the only reliable evening paper)—The regal trains of these stylish suits sweep the floor with a grace that might excite the admiration of a duchess, etc.

Table Cutlery, and an immense stock of
NEW GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS

In each of the above departments our stock is complete. We can amply supply all the requirements of the Farmer, the Tradesman, the Mechanic, the Hotel keeper and the public generally.

It is generally acknowledged throughout Oregon and Washington Territory that we have been the pioneers in reducing goods to a fair living profit, thus enabling the purchaser to get full value for his money. The immense patronage bestowed on us and increasing daily, fully attests the standing we are in with the purchasing community.

This year we are doubly prepared, having added new departments to our already immense stock. We respectfully request intending purchasers of merchandise of ANY description to call upon us, examine our stock, ascertain our prices, use their own judgment and we are confident the verdict will be in our favor.

BODY IDENTIFIED.—Among those who visited the morgue to view the remains of the unfortunate man who fell from the wharf Thursday and was drowned was a gentleman named Fitzgerald. On looking at the body Fitzgerald identified it as that of a man named Raphel ... said that Raphel was a fellow passenger of his from The Dalles to Portland on Thursday. On the way Fitzgerald had some conversation with the young man, from which he ascertained that he came from San Francisco, where his parents now reside. He went to The Dalles and being able to obtain employment had concluded to return to his home. Raphael stated that his father is engaged in merchandising in San Francisco. He also told Fitzgerald that he had only $10 and was going to take a steerage ticket. Fitzgerald said he believed the deceased was a Hebrew. Saturday afternoon several Jewish citizens visited the morgue and the body was recognized by one who had ... A telegram was sent at once to the ... in San Francisco informing them of the sad ... ## BUSINESS NOTICES.

Buy an automatic copying pencil at Geo. H. Hill's City Book Store, No. 17 First street.

Mr. C. von Wintzingerode now occupies No. 231 First street. See his card in these columns.

S. Lipman & Co. are in receipt direct from New York, of another splendid assortment of cloaks, sacks, dolmans, ulsters, redingotes, havelocks, seal skin sacks and dolmans which will be offered at popular and attractive prices. Their styles are the choicest and prices the lowest.

Great bargains are announced at the closing out sale of the bankrupt stock of Woodward, McQuiston & Bradshaw, at the corner of Morrison and Second streets. The ladies of Portland would do well to avail themselves of the rare opportunity of obtaining genuine goods at great reduction.

Kerron & Macbeth, at the corner of Second and Yamhill streets, has just received one of the most varied assortments of goods ever brought to Portland. Their stock includes every style of dress and fancy goods—silks and satins, hosiery, rubber goods, trunks and valises, hats and caps, domestics, gents' furnishing goods, boots and shoes, crockery and glassware, cutlery, etc., etc., etc. All kinds of Oregon produce bought at highest market rates.

PERSONAL.

Mr. B. M. Smith, of San Francisco, arrived on the Oregon, and will spend several weeks in this state preparing mining statistics.

GREAT BARGAINS

In Stationery, Books (English and German), Blank Books, Notions and Fancy Goods, at C. v. Wintzingerode's new stand, No. 231 First street. Periodicals and Newspapers.

Go to Keith's for your oysters.

Sol's restaurant has moved to 67 First st., between Oak and Pine.

The drink of the period is Molson's beer—testimony of all classes.

N. Y. Coffee House and Restaurant, 132 First St. Ladies' rooms open. G. Voss, Manager.

The leading cruise house north of San Francisco—D. W. Prentice & Co., Portland.

W. O'Shea imports no cheap plated jewelry, new watches or guns, for the purpose of selling as unredeemed pledges.

Broken candy 20c a pound. Mixed candy 25c a pound at Postoffice Candy Store, new building opposite postoffice.

The ladies' emporium and lace house, 149 Front street, opposite the Esmond.

Ladies if you wish a real nice and fine fitting shoe, ask for J. H. Smith's goods.

Fredricksburg Brewing Co., San Jose, Cal. Otto Biering agent, 25 Oak street, city.

Uncle Myer, loan office, 181 First st. Private entrance on Yamhill st. Also selling bargains.

Sewing machines of all kinds repaired promptly and well at Barbey's, 82 Yamhill.

Stock of Oregon City goods made in latest style, perfect fit, Bon Ton, 11 & 13 Oak street.

Gold and silver watches and other valuables sold cheap at O'Shea's, 26 Washington st., all unredeemed.

For the very best photographs go to Frank G. Abell, 167 and 169 First street, Portland.

Country people, come and buy bargains at Uncle Myers' square dealing house, 181 First; also Yamhill street entrance.

St. Charles Restaurant is continued under the management of Mr. Frank Rigall, for years with P. Manciet. Enough said.

The Keystone restaurant, Salmon and First, continues to lead. Call to-day. Abbott & Abrahams, proprietors.

Jewelry, guns, pistols, musical instruments, clothing, optical goods, unredeemed at Uncle Myers'.

Arion.—For the very best wine, beer, liquors and cigars go to this place, 38 Yamhill street.

REMEMBER!!!

The Steinway is the only universal piano manufactured! First class pianists all over the world used it and recommended perfect in all requirements. Albert Bartsch, 92 Morrison street, direct agent.

The most respectable conducted saloon in the city is the Oro Fino, on Stark street, between Front and First, where may be found every day an excellent hot lunch, liquors of the first class. English cluo soda and all the leading mineral waters. Hot Rob Roy's and apple jack's a specialty. The leading newspapers always on hand.

Ed. Willis, Proprietor.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Even the women are not all agreed in wanting the ballot, and it is an open question whether, if submitted to a vote of women alone, they would declare in favor of undertaking to discharge the grave duties and responsibilities of electors. But if the women of Oregon and Washington were called upon to vote for the best and most effectual remedy for lame backs and all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs the vote would be unanimous for the Oregon Kidney Tea, which is sold everywhere.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

CALIFORNIA.

Citation Issued.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—In the supreme court in the case of Lizzie Ralston vs. Wm. Sharon, a citation has been issued to the defendant to show cause why his books and accounts shall not be examined.

Suicide.

Albert C. Mayer, a German aged about 40, committed suicide in his room at the Occidental Hotel to-day by shooting himself through the heart. Cause, poverty and inability to find employment.

Dividend.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Eureka Con. declares a dividend of fifty cents.

A Most Cruel Murder.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 15.—Wm. Cooper, the man shot at San Fernando, on Wednesday night, died at 1 this morning. The citizens of that place offer a reward of $200 for the arrest of Peter McKinney, his murderer, and telegraphed Gov. Perkins to add $300. The circumstances of the murder are as follows: About 11:30 Wednesday night, McKinney went to the house of Wm. Cooper and knocked for admittance. Cooper asked who was at the door, to which the reply came, a friend. Cooper partially dressed himself and opened the door, when McKinney presented a pistol at his head, and as Cooper backed into the house followed him. Cooper then asked what he wanted. McKinney answered, "Money." Cooper said, "I have no money," and fell upon his knees, beseeching McKinney not to shoot him. Mrs. Cooper, fearing that her husband would be murdered, also knelt and besought the man not to kill them. McKinney by this time had drawn a second pistol, and with one in each hand covered both husband and wife, still demanding money. They reiterated their assertion that there was not a dollar in the house, when McKinney deliberately fired at Cooper, the ball entering his neck and lodging in his shoulder. The would-be murderer then mounted his horse and fled.

NEVADA.

Mining Assessment.

VIRGINIA CITY, Oct. 16.—The Sierra Nevada statement to-night says the drift started west from the east raise 2300 level and run 12 feet to prospect ore, and the vein in which the raise is made are connecting the incline raise with the 2000 and 2400 level. Union east crosscut No. 1 has connected with the south drift from No. 1 winze, from the raise above the northeast drift of the 2300 level and on the 2450 level. A drift has been started and run 14 feet to find ore body below the 2300 level; No. 1 winze has been sunk five feet through a better vein, than is found in either of the crosscuts on the 2300 level. California has raised 1248 tons of ore, assaying $23 15; Con. Virginia 1206 tons, assaying $21 10.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

Shooting Affray near Celilo.

DALLES, Oct. 16.—On yesterday afternoon a shooting affair occurred at Baizley's ranch, near Celilo, between S. E. Baizley and Jas. Leary, resulting it is feared in Baizley receiving a fatal wound in the thigh. It appears that Leary was out gunning and approaching the ranch aforesaid was ordered off the premises. Hot words ensued and as Baizley neared him he shot. Leary is under arrest.

DALLES, Oct. 17.—S. E. Baizley, who was shot near Celilo, died this morning.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Speculation at Seattle.

SEATTLE, W. T., Oct. 16.—There is information to the effect that the Seattle & Walla Walla Railroad, recently purchased by Henry Villard, in connection with 49,000 acres of choice agricultural land lately purchased by the same party north of Snake river in the eastern portion of this Territory, from the Northern Pacific Company, and possibly one of the several coal mines situated near this city, will form the basis of a new company to be organized in New York on the first of January next, the name of which has not yet been determined upon. It is further ascertained that the recent purchase of the S. & W. W. R. R. has no connection with the O. R. & N. Co., other than in the fact that Henry Villard, President of that Company, has by the purchase in question become a large owner in the S. & W. W. R. R.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

A Landslide Completely Dams Thompson River.

VICTORIA, Oct. 17.—The following alarming intelligence was received from Cache creek last night. On Thursday night a slide took place six miles below Cache creek, which so completely dammed up Thompson river that below the obstruction the bed of the river was exposed. The height of the obstruction is 120 feet, which the river must surmount before resuming its onward course to the sea. Should the dam break away all at once, the damage to the railway works and the wagon road from the action of a wall of water 120 feet high, rushing through the narrow canyons and gorges, will be enormous. Harper's mill, and other property situated near the slide, were considered in great jeopardy.

News Notes from Victoria.

VICTORIA, Oct. 16.—Nanaimo shipped 41,500 tons of coal for the quarter ending September.

The ship Dorset, laden with lumber from Hastings' for S [illegible] has gone to sea.

The chemical works at Yale are nearly finished, and Mr. Kang has begun operations on the Dean giant powder factory.

Wet weather has delayed the railway works a little.

The steamship Hylton Castle from San Francisco for Departure Bay for a cargo of Wellington coal arrived off [illegible] harbor early yesterday morning.

The steamship California, from Sitka, arrived this morning, [illegible] the Indian who murdered the government [illegible] collector, fifteen months ago, was hanged on the 7th inst. He died with words of defiance on his lips.

It has been discovered that all the buildings on Government street, the main thoroughfare in the city, are four feet back of the line.

Shakespeare on "The Superb."

A young republican reader and student sends us the following lines from Julius Cæsar, act iv., scene i., and requests their insertion in THE OREGONIAN. He is of opinion that they furnish a complete picture of the position of the democratic candidate for the presidency, and wishes that somebody would furnish the said candidate with a copy of them:

Antony—Octavius, I have seen more days than you,
And though we lay these honors on this man,
To ease ourselves of divers slanderous loads,
He shall but bear them as the ass bears gold,
To groan and sweat under the business,
Either led or driven, as we point the way;
And, having brought our treasure where we will,
Then take we down his load, and turn him off,
Like to the empty ass, to shake his ears
And graze in commons.
Octavius—You may do your will;
But he's a tried and valiant soldier.
Antony—So is my horse, Octavius.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET.

Great Dearth of Fine Fleeces—Much Machinery in New England Stopped by Drouth.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

BOSTON, Oct. 16.—The aggregate wool sales of the week have been poor, amounting to 1,504,000 pounds, and show a falling off compared with previous weeks and are small compared with the corresponding week last year, when 2,911,000 pounds were taken. Within a day or two there has been a better feeling in the market, but without resulting in any increased business. The drouth throughout New England not only interferes with the production of goods but with the sale of wool, as manufacturers would be more free purchasers if they could start up some of the machinery now idle. Fine fleeces are more sought after, and an offer for round lots has been declined that would have been accepted a week or two ago. Holders anticipate a more active market and higher range of prices at an early day, particularly for fine fleeces, which for some time past have been largely taken by manufacturers in this and other markets. If the consumption continues to run low on combing fleeces as for some months past, it is evident that the supply will be short and imports from abroad cannot be obtained except at much higher prices than are now current. Sales of washed fleeces have been some 300,000 pounds. Sales of unwashed and unmerchantable fleeces have been upwards of 100,000 pounds at 35c for valley Oregon, and 30@35c for territory. California in moderate request at 32@36½c for spring. Nothing of any consequence has been done in fall here, but in San Francisco there has been a large movement on Eastern account.

Eastern Freights via Cape Horn.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—California freights via Cape Horn are fairly active and the movement is gradually increasing, although the amount of tonnage is rather limited, being all in the hands of shippers. The fact is that it is not at all palatable to shippers who do not desire to duplicate shipments on any one vessel, and are holding back. Rates remain steady at about the following quotations: Weight goods 60c; nails 35c keg measurement, goods 40c per foot, oil in barrels $2, turpentine 30c per case, whisky $2 25 per barrel, canned goods 25c per case, cement $1 per barrel, plaster and rosin 80c per barrel, agricultural goods half cent per pound, coal $4 per ton. Freight offerings are of a more miscellaneous character than for some time past, although not in such large lots as were formerly shipped. The General McClellan will finish to-night and will be followed by the Samuel Watts in the course of ten days. Tonnage is still very scarce, that is there are no vessels here suitable for the trade. Some six or seven are due at almost any moment, and it is thought that several of them will accept a charter in the lines. The market rate for ships is quoted at $6 50 per ton, dead weight, which is about equal to the average rate per ton received for freight.

Steamer freights continue quiet, but an effort will be made to increase freight by this route by more liberal offers on part of managers.

Overland freights keep up well, notwithstanding the lateness of the season. A conference of freight officials of the Pacific roads has been held here during the past week, but the result of their deliberations has not been learned. It is thought that an arrangement has been perfected between the Southern Pacific and Atchison & Topeka & Santa Fe roads that will be productive of much benefit to shippers and those who chose to make contracts.

Freights at Boston are more active. The S. J. Southward is well advanced, having received considerable freight from this port. She will be full by the 20th, and will be followed by the new ship Emily F. Whitney. Freights at Philadelphia have also improved, and the George Stetson will be full to the course of ten days.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.
